An analysis of trainee-level data for PMKVY-STT (data as of 3rd February 2020) shows that among those candidates who were eligible for assessment, 84.8% cleared the assessment test.

- Passing percentage for female candidates was 87.2%, compared to 82.3% for males.

- Looking at the number of persons certified as a ratio of those who were assessed, it is seen that 11 of the largest sectors had a higher Certified to Assessed ratio for females than for males.

- The sectors where the ratio was lower for females were: IT-ITeS, BFSI, Construction and Power.
